HOPEFUL TO MOHAWK II.

Champion Wins Great Republic Galloping-Sea Horse II Breaks Leg.

INY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 12 .- In the brilliancy of its racing and in the number of its patrons the Saratoga Association to-day established a new record for itself. Not only did the renewals of the Hopeful, the Great Republic and the Shillelah steeplechase bring the throngs which were anticipated, but each race fulfilled in some part of its running the promise it had held out the night before when the entries were made public.

In the Hopeful, John Sanford's colt, Mohawk II, placed himself on an equine pedestal from which it will be hard to dislodge him, taking up the crushing impost of 130 pounds and beating nine of the shiftiest youngsters that could he sent to the post.

In the Great Republic James R. Keene's flying Sysonby met the much lauded colt Oiseau, and gave him as sound a beating as ever a horse received. The running of the Shillelah alone served to mar the splendid sequence of stakes. This was caused by the distressing accident which befell Mr. Cotton's imported horse, Sea Horse II, which broke his leg at a brush jump nearly opposite the grand stand. Before this accident occurred the spectators saw the greatest two horse race that has been run through the field in many years.

The participants were Sea Horse II and Mr. Widener's six-year-old Gate Bell. For a turn and a half of the field these two raced head and head and at a pace which sent a thrill through the veins of the most blase patrons of racing. Although worth less from a monetary point of view than either the Great Republic or the Hopeful, the first half of the Shillelah was the most exhibarating spectacle of the afternoon.

Ray had the mount on Gate Bell and Owens on Sea Horse II, and both rode at the fences full tilt with a cold blooded indifference that would have made a full fledged fatalist look for a hole in the fence. Russell Sage and Gold Van, the other two starters, had been so far outrun in the first mile that they were quite blotted out of the picture.

Every glass was turned on the flying leaders, when Sea Horse II was seen to blunder at the brush jump already mentioned, and immediately afterward to show unmistakable signs of distress. He came on, however, until the paddock turn was reached, where Owens pulled up and dismounted. The horse had broken his near hind leg below the pastern, and had raced for nearly a mile on his courage.

Distressing as the accident was, it is only fair to Gate Bell to add that she had Sea Horse II beaten before it happened, and outjumped and outran him. When Sea Horse II broke down, Gold Van went on and took the place. The foreigner was at all times a favorite in the betting, although Mr. Widener's mare was supported generously by her owner and by those who believed that she would run to her work of Wednesday, when she was sent a mile in 2:37 1-5.

The victory of Mohawk II in the Hopeful stamps him beyond any quibbling as the best two-year-old the season has produced, and many of the more venturesome dared to couple his name with that of the immortal Hamburg. In winning the Hopeful he unquestionably fulfilled all the requiremets of a great colt. He took up stake weight, made a concession of fifteen pounds to each of his nine opponents, and, oming from behind, won in a desperate drive from Athlete and Juggler in the fast time of

The buildog courage Mohawk displayed in the last sixteenth, when, leg weary and ready to drop, he defied the challenges of the two light-weights and held out long enough to win by a SYSONBY BEATS OISEAU. | weights and held out long enough to win by a length, is the quality which did most to arouse the admiration of horsemen. So many supposedly good colts have been found wanting this year as soon as they were asked to carry weight that the layers took liberties with Mohawk II, and increased the odds against him from 6 to 1 in the opening betting to 9 to 1 at post time. The Whitney pair, Jugger and Pegasus, ruled first choice throughout, and were backed from 8 to 5 to 9 to 10. The Great Republic, although worth $50,000, and bringing the great three-year-old rivals, Sysonby and Oiseau, together for the first time, turned out to be the least interesting contest of the day. Sysonby disposed of Oiseau as he has of everything else he has met this year, and without exerting himself any more than he would in a morning gallop.

The most diverting part of the race was when Oiseau, breaking in front, got to the rall and headed Sysonby around the paddock turn and into the backstretch. When the owner of

into the backstretch. When the owner of Oiseau, the rotund "Diamond" Jim Brady, saw his little chestnut in front, he hurled himself through the crowd on the lawn, shouting a resen of victory that could be heard above the roar of the stands.

The crowing of Mr. Brady lasted until the last turn into the back stretch, when Nicol gave Sysonby his head for a fraction of a second and raced up to Oiseau as if the latter were only a common selling plater. The struggle for supremacy and Mr. Brady's pean of victory ended then and there. Nicol merely sat still for the rest of the journey and won by two lengths, eased up. Oiseau had to be ridden out to the last ounce to beat Broomstick a scant length.

So great was the belief that the Melton colt latter carried many big wagers at prices rang-ing from 18 to 5 to 16 to 5 at post time. The price of Sysonby went up from 5 to 2 on to 20 to 9 on. The mile and a quarter was run in 2:07, but, had the winner been hard pressed, he

2:07, but, had the winner been hard pressed, he could have reduced this by at least two seconds. Both James R. Keene and his son, Foxhall P. Keene, watched the victory of Sysonby from the clubhouse veranda and appeared to take it as unconcernedly as the colt did himself. The fractional time was: 0:12 3-5, 0:24 1-5, 0:36 2-5, 0:48 2-5, 1:00 4-5, 1:13 2-5, 1:26 2-5, 1:39 4-5, 1:53 2-5, 2:07. Last mile, 1:42 2-5.

The victory of Tom Lawson in a selling race at one mile, with gentlemen riders up, was due either to the overconfidence of Mr. Baker or his inability to change his whip, which he attempted to do one hundred yards from home. Mr. Baker rode Saladin, and the horse should have won by at least two lengths.

SYSONBY PASSES GOAL.

Son of Melton Has Now Won Over $100,000 in Stakes.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 12.—The net value of the Great Republic was $39,465, which places Sysonby well up in the exclusive list of horses that have $100,000 or over. Not since Shamrock, owned by Billy Garch, broke leg and ran three-quarters of a mile has there been seen such an exhibition of courage as that displayed by Sea Horse 2d this afternoon. After his leg was hurt he kept on, and took hree jumps, which included the two Liverpools. He would have gone on indefinitely had not Owens pulled him up. The horse was insured for $10,000, but Mr. Cotto refused to have him destroyed, although two veterinary surgeons offered to sign certificates that to have his horse destroyed was a matter of sentiment.

The fractional time of the Hopeful, won by Mohawk 2d, was as follows: 0.122-5, 0.231-2, 0.352-5, 0.481-2, 1.132-5. Curiously enough, this is precisely the same time in which Delhi won the stake in 1993 and Tanya in 1991. According to the scale. Tanya carried the same weight as Mohawk 2d, but the Ben Brush colt had up only 112 pounds.

the horse was worthless. By signing such certifi-cates a policy is not vitiated. Mr. Cotton's refusal

Beat Wrenn and Fincke in Fast Match at Longwood.

Boston, Aug. 12.-F. B. Alexander and H. H nis championship in doubles at Longwood this afternoon, defeating G. L. Wrenn' and R. Fincke, also of New-York, in a hard fought match on slippery turf, by scores of 6-4, 6-4, 8-6. The noon downpour so flooded the courts that it was not until after 4 o'clock that the interrupted match between Clarence Hobart and E. Leonard, in the semi-finals in singles, which was begun in the morning, and the championship in doubles were started. The two events were played on adjoining courts, and the singles match was soon decided, Hobart winning in straight sets,

The crowd, however, sought the doubles, and was well repaid. The railies in this match were long, varied and nearly always brilliant. Wrenn and Fincke tossed the balls high in the air or made Hackett a target for line shots, while Alexander, getting his step in the last of the first set, electrifled the spectators by his dashing crosscourt

In the first of the match Alexander was unsteady driving repeatedly into the net. On the other hand Hackett was cool and steady, and sent back the balls which were constantly driven at him with great accuracy.

The footing was uncertain, and the turf was so wet that it soon became badly cut up, and one of the last points in the second set was lost to Wrenn and Fincke by a poor rebound.

Wrenn and Fincke started off like winners, making the first game without giving the opponents a point. Then they began to make errors, and in a short time the games were five to three against them. They wou the next one, but in the tenth, after deuce had been called twice. Hackett won the set by a fine drive down the sids line. The points on the first set were as follows:

Hackett and Alexander...0 4 3 4 5 4 2 4 2 6 34 6 Wrenn and Fincke......4 2 5 1 3 2 4 1 4 4 30 4 The first four games in the second set were well fought, and Wrenn and Fincke by hard drives obtained a lead of four games to three. Then Alexander began his dashing game, and made point after point by his drives along the side lines and his brilliant work in the net. Wrenn and Fincke were unable to get another game, and the set went to Hackett and Alexander. The points on the second set were as follows:

Hackett and Alexander ..... 4 2 4 7 1 5 1 4 4 4 88 6 Wrenn and Fincke. . . . . 2 4 6 5 4 3 4 0 2 2 32 4 The third set was the hardest fought of the match. Alexander and Hackett obtained a lead of three games to two, and then Wrenn and Fincke jumped ahead. After a long game the match was squared at deuce. Then Wrenn and Fincke won the eleventh and twice were within a point of the set in the twelfth, only to lose it through Fincke's errors. Alexander then took the next two games, and with them the set and match. The points on the last set were as follows:

The finals in singles will be played on Monday morning between Clarence Hobart and R. D. Little, the best two in three. In the afternoon, the winner will meet William A. Larned, the cup holder. The summaries:

Longwood singles (semi-final round)—Clarence Hobart defeated E. W. Leonard, 7-5, 6-4, 6-0; R. D. Little defeated F. B. Alexander by default. defeated F. B. Alexander by default. Eastern doubles (championship: final round)—F. B. Alexander and H. H. Hackett defeated G. L. Wrenn and R. Fincke, 6-4, 6-4, 8-6.

Temeraire in Light Breeze. Rochester, Aug. 12.—In a breeze varying from ten miles an hour at the start to almost a dead calm before the finish, the Iroquois, of Rochester, de-fender of the Canda's Cup, defeated the Temeraire. of Toronto, challenger, off Summerville to-day by 12 minutes and 50 seconds.

The race was about a triangular course, three miles to the leg. twice around. The Fife boat was on the heels of the defender until the final leg, and yachting experts said that in a stiffer breeze and under other conditions the Temeraire may produce a different result.

The race began at 11 o'clock under pleasant skies, viewed by throngs of spectators on the piers and shores and boats that dotted the lake for a radius of a mile. A great many Canadian yachts followed the racers about the course, and the visitors cheered Skipper Wedd, of the Temeraire, as the hallenging yacht showed bursts of speed.

The Iroquois crossed the line first, with the Temeraire a few seconds behind. The challenger pointed higuer and attempted to blanket the leader, but failed. Later the Temeraire took the lead by breaking out her balloon jib. Skipper Mabbett of the Iroquois, on the balloon run, soon overcame the lead, and in rounding the first buoy was over a minute ahead.

Mabbett then broke out his jib and staysalls, while Wedd stuck to the ballooner. At the second stakeboat the relative positions of the yachts were about the same, and in the run for the home buoy the Temeraire gained a few seconds. In the second round the wind had died down to

In the second round the wind had died down to about six miles an hour, and shifted from the southwest to nearly northwest. The breeze steadily dropped, and at the outer buoy both yachts were in a fog, with the froquois a minute and a half in the lead. The American boat was apparently doing better work in the lighter breeze. Under the balloon jib for the challenger and jib and staysail for the defender the second leg of the second round began. The wind was then not better than four miles an hour, and the American boat began to slip away from her rival with the greatest ease.

began to slip away from her rival with the greatest ease.

At 2 o'clock the boats were almost becalmed. Soon, however, the wind freshened, until it reached about eight miles an hour, and a beautiful battle on the homestretch was promised as the challenger again began to cut down the defender's lead.

At the turning of the second stake and the start for home there was scarcely three minutes difference between the boats. Tacking for home the Iroquois met a favorable wind and raced for the buoy. The Temeraire was evidently in difficulty and laboring with a different wind, as she did not seem to make much headway.

The American yacht crossed the line nearly half a mile ahead of the challenger, amid the cheers of the crowd and booming of guns for the victor. The next race will be sailed Monday morning at II o'clock, four miles to windward and leeward, twice around. The official time of to-day's race:

INVADER TROTS FAST.

Runs Away, but Steps Record Mile at Empire City Track.

After running away and twice circling the course at Empire City, with his owner powerless to stop him, Andrew Crawford's bay gelding Invader yesterday trotted the fastest mile of the season at the weekly meeting of the New-York Driving Club Moving with the ease and precision of a machine the angular bay trotter turned the track in 2:114 beating by a full second the best previous per-formance this season. Soggy from the morning formance this season. Soggy from the morning rain, the course was by no means fast, so that Invader's speed was really greater than the records made it appear.

Princes rique, which defeated Invader earlier in the season, had hard work to win her race in 2:17%, and 2:17 yesterday.

The black mare was plainly in poor form, as was Jolly Bachelor, a winner in the Grand Circuit last year. A. C. Schuyler's Mona Wilkes, a handsome bay mare without a record, nearly beat them both.

TROTTING AT BUFFALO.

Close Finishes in 2:06 Pace Mark Grand Circuit Windup.

Buffalo, Aug. 12. The threatening weather conditions all this afternoon kept the crowd that went out to Keniiworth Park to see the wind-up of the Grand Circuit meeting down to comparatively small

Those who were there, however, felt amply repaid, for in the 2:06 pace they saw as fine a race as has been witnessed during the meeting.

In this race George E. Latimer, the Buffalo annaur reinsman, started the little stallion Charley Hayt. 2:68%, against Baron Grattan, 2:68%, driven by Ed Geers. Winleid Strattan, 2:68%, driven by Ed Geers. Winleid Strattan, 2:68%, Riley B., 2:66%, driven by W. L. Snow, and Ecstatic, 2:68%. Winfield Stratten, who had been leading all the way, won the first heat from Baron Grattan, that horse making a break at the short distance. Just at the firish, with his horse under punishment. Snow landed Riley B. first in the second heat by a narrow margin. Mr. Latimer won the third heat by two open lengths. The other races on the card were without feature.

National Amateur Champion Has Argonauts, of Toronto, Make New Little Trouble in Winning.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Chicago. Aug. 12—H. Chandler Egan successfully defended his title of national amateur golf cham-pion in the finals of the eleventh annual tournament at the Chicago Golf Club links, at Wheaton, to-day, defeating D. E. Sawyer, of Wheaton, 8 up and 5 to play. Egan, who has thrice in four years taken the neasure of all aspirants for the Western Golf Association title, thus scores his second victory for the United States Golf Association championship and the Havemeyer Cup. Sawyer was often brilliant in his play against the champion, but he was weak at critical times on the putting green. Egan was steady at all times with his iron club, although often getting discouraging lies by his terrific tee shots in the morning round. In the afternoon he avoided some of this trouble by using a cleek at the narrow places in the course. Egan practically won the match on the putting

The largest gallery that ever turned out in the West to view a goif match followed the players in the afternoon. Weather conditions early in the day were threatening, but later the sun came out and provided a sultry day for play.

"Unquestionably, Mr. Egan is the best golfer in the United States," said Mr. Sawyer after the match ended. Egan intends to enter the business world soon, and will confine his golf play after the coming Exmoor annual open tourney to Saturday afternoon club matches.

coming Exmoor annual open tourney to Saturday afternoon club matches.

Although neither contestant played what might be termed championship golf in the morning. Sawyer was never up on the title holder except at the second hole. Egan squared matters at the fifth and thereafter always held a lead on the Wheaton lad.

At the end of the first nine holes of play Sawyer was 2 down. He was 3 down at the eleventh hole, but, winning the twelfth and sixteenth holes, he was only 1 down to the champion when the morning round was concluded.

In the first nine holes of the afternoon play Sawyer felt the power of Egan's golf, and, losing the third, sixth and seventh holes of this quarter, and only winning the fourth, Sawyer was 4 down at the twenty-seventh hole.

When Egan added the thirtleth and thirty-first holes to his list the finals were over and Sawyer was given the runner-up medal of silver. Egan gets his second United States Golf Association massive gold medal and the Havemeyer trophy remains with Exmoor for another year.

Egan will attain his majority on August 21. Sawyer is only twenty-three years old. The championship, therefore, resolved itself into a test of youthful golf. an say," said Egan after his victory. "Is that I am glad, for Chicago and for Exmoor, that ship, therefore, resolved itself into a test of youthful golf.

"All I can say," said Egan after his victory, "is that I am glad, for Chicago and for Exmoor, that the trophy remains in the West. Seriously, I was fortunate in coming through the week's play a victor, on account of the penchant I showed for getting into the rough grass."

At the end of the first eighteen holes, which were played in the morning, Egan was 1 up.
Three putts, after being dead on the green in 2, cost Sawyer a chance to square the match at the nineteenth hole. Egan's tee shot was 310 yards and the nineteenth was haived in 5.

Both drove about 2% yards to the twentieth hole.
Sawyer was short on his pitch and Egan was too far. Sawyer was weak on his approach putt, and, imming the cup, he lost the hole to Egan, 5 to 4. Egan 2 up.

Egan brought his lead to 3 up on the twenty-first hole. Both were in the rough and Sawyer sliced into trouble trying to get out. Egan made another great recovery to the green. Sawyer was over the cup, while Egan was dead in 3 and down in 4. Sawyer missed a putt, taking 5.
Sawyer most a putt, taking 5.
Sawyer most lead to 2 up. Egan used his midron to get out of the grass. Sawyer's mashie pitch was to within five feet of the cup, and he holed. Egan missed a longer putt.
The twenty-third hole was halved in four, although Egan was penalized for his terrific drive by going into the bunker. He was out short, while Sawyer followed his good drive with a fine second to the green, twelve feet from the cup. Egan sent his third to the green and holed in four. Egan 2 up.

Egan won the twenty-fourth hole, 5 to 8, as Sawyer was bunkered on his tee shot. Out poorly Sawyer put his third into the long grass, and Egan put his next into the rough. He was out well to the green. Egan 3 up. Sawyer lost the twentyfifth hole, 5 to 3, by driving a ball over the fence and out of bounds. Egan holed a five-foot put.

Each pitched to the green and was down in two putts. Egan's thirriteth tee shot was straight. Sawyer was bunkered on his second, while Egan was well to the green and down in two more, winning the hole 4 to 5. Egan, 5 up, 6 to play.

The thirty-first hole decided the match. Sawyer pulled his tee shot to the long grass and his second was out over the green and into the rough again. Egan's drive was a cleek shot short of the bunker. Fis second was to the green. This hole is 485 yards long. Sawyer reached the green in 3. Sawyer gave up the hole and the match was over Egan 6 up, 5 to play.
